STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

THE TIME FOR THE REGULAR ANNUAL meeting of the stockholders of the Nevada Mill Co. having passed, notice is hereby given that at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of said corporation, held this day, it was ordered that a stockholders' meeting be held on Tuesday, the fifteenth day of December, 1891, for the election of Trustees to serve for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

D. B. BOYD, Secretary.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 16, 1891.

NOTICE.

IT IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT THE ASsessment Roll for Washoe County, Nevada, for 1891, is now in the hands of the County Treasurer, at his office in the Court House, and taxes will be received until the close of official business on Monday, December 7, 1891; after which time ten percent will be added to all taxes not paid at that date.

THE GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL.

THIS WELL-KNOWN AND POPULAR HOTEL
is three stories in height and contains 35
rooms all well lighted and airy, and it is furnished in modern style. The dining room is a home for the traveler, where he can get the very best the market affords, and the bar is second to none in the State. Try the Grand Central once and you won't stop anywhere else.

DAN O'KEEFE,
Proprietor.

Before Learning a Language.

Some students begin a language for the mere love of knowing foreign languages; others acquire them either for professional purposes or with the aim of gaining access to foreign literatures. But whatever be the motive it is well to set out with some knowledge of the science of language—some insight into the relations of languages to each other—some grasp of the theories of modern scholars about the origin and development of speech. To learn language without knowing anything of the science of language is like acquiring the art of putting up electric fixtures without any knowledge of the principles of electrical science.

To approach it, on the other hand,
from the standpoint of universal principles is to make the study of it easier and progress in any particular tongue much more rapid. By knowing, for example, the laws of consonantal interchange, we may often discover the meaning of words without being obliged to refer for them to the dictionary. In this way every new language learned makes more easy the acquirement of other tongues of the same or allied stocks.—Boston Herald.

Maternal Love of the Whale.

No other member of the animal kingdom displays more maternal affection than the whale, especially if its calf is harpooned. The harpooner never throws his harpoon into the little one with the intention of killing it, for if this is done the mother will instantly forsake it. If alive and struggling, however, the dam can be easily enticed toward the boat to meet its fate. Knowing this, the whale fishermen always strike a calf if possible, and thus often make captures that could not be effected under other circumstances.

As soon as the dam becomes aware of the snaring of her young she rushes toward it, encourages it to swim away,
and even assists by taking it under her
fin. She seems to lose all regard for her own safety, and boldly attacks the boat containing the whaler, or circles about it totally regardless of the harpoon-points that are hurled at her and enter her flesh.—Detroit Free Press.

A Peculiar Prayer.

In a Maine town near the seacoast was one of many communities where the men were, so to speak, a cross between farmers and sailors, and where, as a natural consequence, the cultivation of the soil was somewhat neglected.

The minister of a neighboring town exchanged with the minister of this community, and as a drought was upon them the people sent him a request that he would pray for rain. This he did,
as follows:

"O Lord, thy servant is asked by this people to pray for rain, and he does so.
But thou knowest, O Lord, that what this soils needs is dressin'."—Atlantic Monthly.

How the Natives Treat Gorillas.

Natives in the countries inhabited by great apes regard them always as human beings of inferior types, and it is for this reason that for a long time it was found impossible to get hold of an entire gorilla skin, because the savages considered it religiously necessary to cut off the hands and feet of the animals when they killed them, just as they do with their enemies, possibly for the purpose of rendering them harmless in case they should by any chance come to life again.

—Interview in Washington Star.

A Protest.

Bunting—Good morning, Dr. Pareus.
Pareus—Good morning, Mr. Bunting.
How is your health?

Mr. Bunting—Now, doctor, don't talk shop.—New York Truth.

Shocking.

A prominent New York theatrical man, who is quite homely but very confident, went into a photograph gallery to get some photographs he had had taken. The photographer produced them, and the man declared them elegant. Said he: "It is an excellent picture. It is me all over. It is life itself."

"That is so," responded the candid artist, with a dismal expression of countenance, "they are so lifelike that I can't afford to put one of them in the show window, as I intended to. I can't afford to shock the public that way."

His Rage Saved His Life.

A story is related of the celebrated grammarian, Urbain Domergue, who had an abscess on his throat, which broke in a fit of passion with which he fell on his physician for committing a solecism in grammar.—American Notes and Queries.

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank
A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt
House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes,
and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth.
He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used.

What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup
in the market."

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The first Monday in December, one week from to-morrow, the Fifty-Second Congress will convene at Washington. The Senate consists of 88 members, 47 of whom are Republicans, 39 Democrats and two Farmers' Alliance. The House is composed of 338 members, about 233 of whom are Democrats, 88 Republicans and the rest Farmers' Alliance and Independents.

It is the first time since the war that more Democrats than Republicans have been elected to the House of Representatives from the Northern States. As the recent National Convention of the Farmers' Alliance, instructed its Representatives in Congress to keep aloof from the caucuses of the old parties, the members of that party will act independent of the others and doubtless nominate a candidate for Speaker of the House.

The principal candidates for the Speakership are Crisp of Georgia, Springer of Illinois and Mills of Texas. It is said that a large majority of the Northern Democrats will vote for Mills, though his election is not conceded. The New England members, who are in favor of a general tariff bill so that certain articles may be placed on the free list, are said to be for Mills, while those who think that only amendments to the present tariff law should be offered by the Democrats in favor of Springer or Crisp for Speaker.

It has been charged that Mills has entered into an agreement with Eastern Congressmen in the event of his being elected Speaker, to appoint conservative men on the Coinage Committee, so as to prevent a majority report on free coinage, but Mills emphatically denies the charge.

Much will depend upon the course of the majority in the House this Winter, whether or not a Democrat will succeed Harrison in the White House. If a free coinage bill is passed and becomes a law it will reduce the issues between the parties to economy in expenditures and a readjustment in the tariff, but if such a bill is passed by Congress and vetoed by the President, free coinage will then become a leading issue in the next campaign, provided the question is not dodged in the National Conventions.

REBELLION IN CHINA.

Recent reports from China, are to the effect that the outbreak in the northern part of the Empire, which the officials described as a raid of Mongolian robbers, proves to be a rebellion of formidable dimensions. The insurgents' forces are receiving large accessions to their ranks and are said to be marching toward Peking. They have pillaged missions and massacred converted natives. They dislike Christians and whites generally as much as they do the Manchoo dynasty, which has ruled China for nearly two hundred and fifty years, and they spare neither missionaries nor imperial soldiers.

The authorities at Peking seem unable to afford protection to foreigners or Christianized natives. They have been fearing a rebellion for some time, yet are not prepared to suppress it. Imperial troops are said to have been sent against the rebel forces who are marching in the direction of Peking.

The Manchongs, who established the present dynasty, have been in possession of the Government since 1644. Shun-chi, the first monarch of the dynasty, was educated by the German Jesuit, Adam Schall. His successor restored the Christian churches to the missionaries, but subsequently Yung-Ching expelled the missionaries from the schools. Three rebellions against the dynasty have broken out within the last fifty years.

The Taiping rebellion which commenced in 1850, lasted 14 years and several important cities were in the hands of the rebels. In 1857 the Mohammedan rebels established a government over 65,000 square miles of territory, but the imperial forces recaptured the province in 1873.

Other rebellions have broken out in various parts of the Kingdom, and have invariably been suppressed, but whether the present one will meet the same fate, time will tell.

Utah Republicans are elated over the resolutions adopted by the Republican National Committee recognizing them. They say the Gentile element of Utah has been completely dominated by a small clique of selfish schemers, calling themselves "Liberals" for whom there is no further use. They have control of the Salt Lake City government, and dominate everything. Their administration of public affairs is extravagant. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been squandered, and the Liberal party and its organ are beneficiaries.

The celebration of Archbishop Kenrick's golden jubilee takes place at St. Louis to-day. Nearly all the Catholic bishops in the United States are participating in the ceremonies.

A RAILROAD COLLISION.

A Number of People Killed and Injured.
TOLLEDO, November 27.—The Boston & Chicago express east-bound on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road was run into to-night by the Flint and Pere Marquette express, two people being killed, outright and many injured.

In the outskirts of the city the road runs through a tunnel under the canal, and east of the tunnel is a signal target. The Lake Shore train had stopped for the target when the Flint and Pere Marquette express, which goes through the tunnel and over the Lake Shore tracks to the Union depot crashed into the rear at high speed. The ordinary day coach was attached to the rear of the Lake Shore express for way passengers and into this the colliding engine plowed until the pilot was in the middle of the coach. The seats and floor were torn up and the unfortunate victims were scalded by the escaping steam from the boiler.

There is but two minutes difference in the arriving time of the trains and the Lake Shore seemed to have been behind time.

The Flint and Pere Marquette engineer says he saw the rear lights of the Lake Shore train, when he was still in the tunnel and knowing a collision was inevitable, shut off steam, after which he and his fireman jumped.

The list of the casualties is: Mrs. Susan McCoy, Saginaw, Michigan, dead; Miss Ellen Meyers of Cleveland, fatally injured. Among others injured, some of whom are in a serious condition, are Mrs. Nelson of Toledo, S. L. Walker of Goshen, Ind., K. C. J. Anderson of Riverside, Ill., D. Taylor of Boston, Joseph Ludwig of Peoria, Ill., Warren L. Potter of Cleveland, H. Vaughn of Auburn, N. Y., Thos. McQueen of Elkhart, Ind., John Conway, Miss Dolly Foster and Mrs. Galloway of Toledo.

No one in either train was hurt save those in the day coach. Mrs. M. J. McDonald, of New York, was badly burned. Her 8-year-old boy was fatally injured and her baby killed. Conductor Hunter, Chris Henderer and Mrs. Annie Mack, of New York, were seriously injured.

More Record Breaking.

Strookrom, November 28.—Direct paced a mile against his record of 2:08 and made 2:07. His quarters were 32%, 1:04%, 1:36 and 2:07. He will go another mile before night.

Fausta, the yearling pacer by Sidney, went against her world's record of 2:24%, and made a mile in 2:22%. The best eastern record against her is Rollos, 2:28%. Fausta's quarters were 37%, 1:13, 1:48 and 2:22%.

Athadon, a yearling colt by Mathadon, trotted against his record of 2:28 and beat it one second, going in 2:27. His quarters were 35%, 1:12%, 1:50 and 2:27.

Frou Frou, the wonderful little Sidney filly owned by the Valensin Stock Farm, went a full mile in 2:25%, beating her own world's record 1/4 of a second, and leading Belle Bird a full second. She went the first quarter in 37 1/4 seconds, the second in 35%, the third in 37 and the fourth in 35 seconds, a terrific clip for a yearling.

Direct was brought out again, and made a mile in 2:05, equalling his record. He went to the first quarter in 31 1/4 seconds, the second in 31% and to the half in 1:03. He passed the third quarter 32%, and the last in 30 1/4 seconds, making the mile in 2:05. No other horse ever made two such fast miles in one day. Direct will start again next Tuesday.

D. M. Reaves' mare, Vio H. trotted against her record of 2:13%. She went a mile in 2:13%, and was sent again, going in 2:13. The last time it was not official as she ran under the wire.

Monbars, the famous eastern two-year-old stallion, went against 2:18, and made 2:16%. His quarters were 35, 1:08%, 1:42% and 2:16%. The colt will go again next Tuesday.

Political Views.

DAVENPORT, Ia., November 28.—The Sunday Democrat prints a symposium of political views of the Presidential ticket in 1892. It includes interviews with nearly one hundred Democratic members of the Fifty-Second Congress. The majority favor Cleveland for first and Boies of Iowa for second place. Next to Boies the strongest candidate for Vice President is Gray of Indiana. Several Iowa Congressmen and two from other States favor Boies for first place.

Destroyed by Fire.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 28.—Early this morning a fire broke out in the flouring mill of Goins & Gamler, at Soio, destroying the mills and their contents. The mills had recently been rebuilt and new machinery added. Loss about $25,000. The fire caught from a hot box in the elevator shaft.

Famine in Russia.

St. Petersburg, November 28.—Stories of distress by famine continue with painful monotony. Death and pestilence caused by the character of food to which people are compelled to resort in their efforts to prolong life results in the mortality daily increasing.

A Child Kidnapped.

KANSAS CITY, November 28.—The mysterious King, alias Dennis, alias Spinole, who it is said returned the kidnapped Beal's child, was arrested this morning. He is the chief conspirator in the abduction, and undoubtedly the man who delivered the child and obtained the $5,000 ransom last night at the police station. King was scolded but no money was found upon him. King had little to say. He denied knowing anything about the abduction, saying the woman could tell everything.

Albert King and his wife Lizzie King, alias Lizzie Smith, were brought before the justice this morning and charged with the abduction of the son of David T. Beal. The prisoners pled not guilty to the charge. They could not give bonds and were committed to jail.

George Ford, who was present when Beals paid the ransom to an unknown man, called at the jail to-day and after carefully looking over King asserted that he was not the man to whom the money was paid.

Meeting of Miners.

AUBURN, Cal., November 28.—Pursuant to call a large and enthusiastic convention of mining men met in this city to-day. Nevada, El Dorado, Lake and San Francisco counties were represented. Hon. J. H. Neff presided.

A call was issued inviting the other counties of the State to unite in sending not less than thirty delegates each to the convention to meet at San Francisco on Wednesday, January 20th.

Late decisions of the Interior Department at Washington were severely censured. The county is united in a general feeling in favor of reviving mining interests.

Quicksilver Mine Sold.

CALISTOGA, Cal., November 28.—The Bradford quicksilver mine, together with the land surrounding it, has been sold by the Bradford family and associates in business to D. O. Mills of New York, J. B. Randol, Superintendent of the New Almaden quicksilver mine in Santa Clara county, and Thomas Bell, formerly interested in the Indria quicksilver mine. The price paid has not been made public, but it is presumed to be large.

Death of R. P. Hammond.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 28.—Richard P. Hammond, a member of the Board of Police Commissioners died this afternoon after a long illness. He was born in Maryland, was a West Point graduate, and served with distinction in the Mexican war, and was made Brevet Major, August 20, 1847, for gallant and meritorious services at Contreras and Churubusco.

Killed by an Explosion.

BELVIDERE, N. J., November 28.—By the explosion of a blast in a mine this morning Peter Hanksire was instantly killed, George Dode fatally injured and a number of others fatally injured. The men were drilling and struck and old charge.

Severe storms are raging in some of the Northwestern States and the mercury is from ten to eighteen degrees below zero in parts of Minnesota.

Failures of commercial houses are quite frequent in the East at present, mostly due to speculation on the stock boards.

Lost His Leg in a Bear Fight.

Two of the crew of the schooner Marguerite, of Seattle, met with a severe accident at Port Muller, on the north side of the Alaskan peninsula. Their names are Thomas Boswell and J. Schieffelin, and they were ashore prospecting for coal. Both were armed with rifles. They came across a bear and both fired. Though badly wounded the animal made a rush at the men, and in the excitement Boswell got a cartridge jammed in his gun. Before Schieffelin could reload, the bear was upon them and knocked them down, one after the other, with a blow from its paw. Boswell tried to get to his feet, but the bear seized him by the leg and crushed it from the knee down. The animal then ran away, but returned about ten minutes later, when Schieffelin, who had recovered consciousness, shot it. The two men got back to the schooner and the captain made sail for Oonalska. It took eight days to get there and then Surgeon Berry Hill, of the Marion, amputated Boswell's leg.—San Francisco Report.

A Wonderful Dakota Rainbow.

Dr. McVean has arrived in the city after a tour of the country. The doctor resides at Armour, S. D., and has much to tell about that region. "A few days ago," he said, "the people, among the number myself, witnessed one of the most remarkable phenomena seen in that or any other portion of the United States. The phenomenon consisted of the appearance of the northern lights under remarkable circumstances. The lights formed a regular rainbow and appeared at night. The bow extended the whole length of the horizon and was thirty feet wide. Everything was seen on the broad prairie just as if it had been lit up by electricity. The old settlers claim that such a thing was noticed in 1862, but not since."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Sail on His Lawn Mower.

One of our neighbors had a sail on his lawn mower one day last week. At any rate it looked like a sail, for he had several square feet of canvas attached to the back side of the machine, and people thought he was trying to have a regatta all to himself. However, closer investigation showed that his sail was simply a large bag into which the cut grass was thrown instead of falling on to the ground. He was quite happy over his contrivance, because he didn't have to rake his lawn after he had cut the grass.—Ashland Cor. Framingham (Mass.) Tribune.

A Maryland court has decided that a railroad company may charge a higher fare to a passenger without a ticket, but if he was unable to procure a ticket, through the fault of the company he may take passage on the train, and upon tender of the ticket fare, be entitled to all the privileges, and the company would have no right to eject him. The fact that the trespass occurred on Sunday would not affect his right to recover.

Governor Colcord has appointed C. D. Van Duxer State Land Agent at Washington to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Isaac Frohman. He is a capable and deserving young man, and will doubtless perform the duties of the office creditably and honorably.

The Lyon county Times says it is reported that John W. Mackay and the V. & T. had a misunderstanding about the price of hauling ore from Virginia City to the mills on the Carson, and Mr. Mackay contemplates building a mill at Sutro and taking the ore through the tunnel.

A Philadelphia surgeon claims that with three strokes of a lancet he could paralyze the nerves acted on to make a man mad, and thereafter any one could pull his nose, sniff his ears and spit on his boots and he would simply smile, like the heathen Chinese, childlike and bland.

The funeral of the late Frank Reigelhuth will take place at 2 o'clock to-day, (Sunday), from the Episcopal Church. His death resulted from pneumonia, which developed from a cold contracted a week ago last Friday. He was well and favorably known in Europe, where he lived for some time before he came to Reno. He leaves a wife and a daughter to mourn the loss of a husband and father.

FOSTER'S WEATHER FORECASTS.

What the Electrical System of Meteorology Indicates.

Copyrighted, 1891, by W. T. Foster.

St. Joseph, Mo., November 27.

In my last letter I mentioned a serious drought to occur next year along and south of the 40th degree of north latitude in the United States. I have not yet fully determined the effects of the drought in detail, only its scope in a general way. It will principally affect the Mississippi Valley, where the elevation is not more than 1,500 feet, and the low lands along the Atlantic Coast. In mountainous regions, especially the Rocky Mountains, more than the average amount of rain will fall.

In this general letter I cannot give a detailed forecast that will fit every locality, and those who desire further information may address me by letter. Many limited localities within the great drought district will have sufficient rain to make fair crops, but where these localities may be situated depends largely on the topography of the country surrounding them.

Every farmer and feeder should keep enough grain and hay to carry stock through the Winter of 1892-3. There can be no loss in this, even to those who may be in the favored localities and raise a good crop in 1892, for it is not probable that prices will be lower next year than they now are. If the planters could do so it would pay them to keep their cotton till next year's crop is made.

A portion of the Fall wheat belt will have favorable weather for a good crop, but Spring wheat will be the principal crop next year. I am now carefully calculating the details of next year's serious drought, and hope to have it completed by January.

The cold wave that crossed the continent from the 13th to 19th of November and the extensive snow storms that accompanied it have settled all doubts as to the nature of the oncoming Winter. That storm, with the extremely low temperature of its cold wave, convinced millions of people that the Winter will be as predicted, and will go far toward confirming the reliability of my forecasts. I have made a few mistakes, but the cold Spring and cold June and July, warm August and September, the general good crops of 1891 and the early Winter weather, all predicted by me a year in advance, will largely increase the interest in the electrical system of meteorology.

While I have thus demonstrated, at my own expense, the utility of this system, our Government continues to pay out annually $800,000 in support of the National Weather Bureau, which is conducted now on exactly the same theory and by the same men that it was twenty years ago. If the system I use was supported by two per cent. of the money paid to the National Weather Bureau, it could soon be so perfected as to be of great value to agriculture, whereas the system used by the National Weather Bureau is of very little, if any benefit to agriculture.

When the Weather Bureau was transferred to the Agricultural Department it was hoped that a new departure would be made in the interest of the tillers of the soil, but it is now quite apparent that the defunct heat theory of weather changes has a perpetual lease on the Washington Weather Bureau so long as Congress is willing to appropriate nearly a million dollars for its support.

One year ago I predicted greater storms from May, 1891, to the 1st of July, 1892, than had occurred for sixty years past. The greatest of these storms will occur in 1892. The storms that have occurred all around the earth within three months past, especially within the West Indies, on our own Atlantic Coast, in Australia, Eastern Asia, South America and Western Europe are the greatest on record. The storms to come will be most severe where those of the past three months have been least.

W. T. Foster.

DISTRICT COURT.

Business Transacted Yesterday.

In the District Court yesterday, Judge Cheney presiding, the following business was transacted:

Pacific Manufacturing Co. vs. G. S. Smith and A. P. Marker, defendant's demurrer argued, and demurrer sustained by the Court, and judgment ordered to be entered for defendants.

S. H. Simmonds et. al. vs. the C. P. R. Co. Decree ordered to be entered for plaintiffs in accordance with the findings. In the matter of the estate of Morris May, deceased, the executor's account of the sale of personal property presented and approved.

Cannon and wife vs. Kuhles and wife. Ordered that the action as to Stella Kuhles, one of the defendants, be dismissed and that she have judgment for her costs.

THE "WET SCHEME" NOTE SIGNERS

They Meet and Adjourn Without Action.

An adjourned meeting of those interested in what they designated a "wet scheme" was held at the Court House yesterday. W. H. Gould, who had been appointed to visit the land purchased for water storage on the Little Truckee, reported that he had visited the ground with surveyors and found it to be a good site for a reservoir. An assessment of fifty cents each, payable to Judge Webster, was levied upon the signers of the note to pay expenses of advertising and of examining the reservoir site. As there were only a few of those interested present, no definite action was taken as to the disposition to be made of the land, and the meeting adjourned without day.

CASUALTIES TO TRAINMEN.

The Number Killed and Injured This Year.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission stationer furnishes the following: The fatalities to railroad employees for the year numbered 1,972, while the injuries amounted to 20,039. Among the chief causes of death were coupling, 300; falling, 493; overhead accidents, 65; collisions, 167; derailments, 125; other train accidents, 189; highway crossings, 24; at stations, 70; other causes, 239; over a third of the injuries were received while coupling cars, the total being 6,757 out of 20,038. Nearly one per cent. of the trainmen and switchmen were killed during the year, and about 8 per cent. of the trainmen or 11,301 were injured, and over 11 per cent of the switchmen of 1,155.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system, gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Free Water.

Parties in Reno having good wells or a place for one are throwing away money in paying water rates, when by a small investment plenty of pure water is at their command free of cost. One good well will supply water for several families, who by joining in the expense of erecting a windmill, tank, etc., can not only effect a saving in expenses, but be independent of a monopolizing water service. A visit to the Water Company's reservoir and ditch at times will convince the most skeptical that well water is the doctor's enemy, while surface water is the direct agent in bringing business to his office.

Constant pumping insures pure water from all good wells, hence the quality of well water cannot be judged properly from only occasional pumpings. Many unused wells would furnish plenty of pure, clear water if properly pumped.

Can you afford a pumping plant of your own? We will answer for you, Yes.

We are prepared to take contracts this Winter to erect any sized wind-mill plant required, with proper tank and service connection, furnishing them on a monthly installment plan, warranting all work and taking proper care of all mills so erected. Plans and specifications free upon application. anti-freezing pumps and protected pipes insure equally as good Winter service as in Summer. For further particulars call on

RENO M'rs. Co.

Things Money Cannot Buy.

How much the happiness of individual lives is made up of priceless things, unsalable in the coin of the land, yet found quickly when the heart of the searcher honestly desires them! Many of these real treasures are qualities that simply diffuse themselves through the moral and mental atmosphere, and are sometimes little valued, because they seem too vaporous and too illusive to be practically grasped; but they are genuine possessions and won by heart service.

Who does not rejoice to have an honorable name—not necessarily a distinguished name, but a clean one? Truly, pride in such an inheritance, which cannot be bought, is justifiable if with it there are mingled a feeling of humility and a desire to do one's own part to transmit the name as unsullied as it has been bestowed. What makes home love dearer and sweeter than all else, and treasured while life lasts? Not the tables and chairs, not the delicacy of porcelain or the aesthetic beauty which the loom achieves.

These minister to the comfort, taste and artistic nature; but beyond these there is something which ministers to the heart and soul, glorifying plain surroundings and homely details—something illusive to measure or weight, yet potent to guide, to comfort and to help. What is this but the sympathy, the trust, the spirit of sacrifice, the gentleness, the faith, the readiness to do and to bear, which, blended together, make the chain that binds us to our homes?—Harper's Bazar.

Where Steel Is Made.

The general aspect of the interior of a converting house at night is at once startling and grandly impressive. Here heat, flame and liquid metal are ever present; locomotives whistle and puff, dragging with clatter and clang huge ladles of molten iron; the lurid light, flashing and flaming, that illuminates the scene, throws shadows so intensely black that they suggest the "black fire" of Milton, for in such a place it is impossible for a shadow to be cool; half naked, muscular men, begrimed with sweat and dust, flit about; clouds of steam arise from attempts to cool in some degree the roasting earth of the floor; converters roar, vibrate and vomit flames mingled with splashes of metal from their white hot throats; at intervals the scorching air is filled with a rain of coruscating burning iron.

Ingot molds lift months parched with a thirst that can only be appeased for a short time by streams of liquid steel that run gurgling into them; the stalwart cranes rise, swing and fall, loading scores of tons of red hot steel upon cars of iron; all these conditions and circumstances combine to make an igneous total more suggestive of the realms of Pluto than any other in the whole range of metal-lurgical arts.—W. F. Durfee in Popular Science Monthly.

When Animals Are "Charmed."

Kahn mentions having seen a rattlesnake "lying at the bottom of a tree on which a squirrel was seated, fixing its eyes on the little animal, which from that moment cannot move or escape, but begins a doleful outcry, comes toward the snake, runs a little bit away, comes nearer, and finally is swallowed." But, as if to show that this result of bewilderment is not all to be put down to the eye alone, Dr. Andrew Smith says: "I have heard of cases in which ante-lopes and other quadrupeds have been so bewildered by the sudden appearance of crocodiles, by the grimaces and contortions they practiced, as to be unable to fly or move from the spot toward which the crocodiles were approaching to seize them."

This power is in the human animal often developed to a very great extent, and the part that the eye plays in fascinating a fellow creature by mesmerism—thus opening the way to almost infinite psychical results and unveiling unknown depths of possibility—is decidedly great in proportion to the magnetic force of the system, or rather the mind, for which it acts.—Chambers' Journal.
